Join us for the 4th NorCal Gathering. We'll be learning and sharing experiences and information about creating and supporting person centered systems, organizations and services through the implementation of person-centered practices. We'll also be thinking and talking about how California is faring in light of the Final Rule.

General Sessions Hosted or Moderated by Michael Smull:

- It Takes More Than Training
- From Exposure to Habit to Embedding
- More on the Silver Bullet Syndrome or What's Next for Person Centered Thinking and Planning in California?

Break-Out and General Session Conversations Include: Person Centered Practices and Cultural Diversity; Plans That Connect People to Their Communities; a session on Families; and, an Update on PCT Curriculum for Trainers and Mentors. An Open Marketplace process will be used to determine additional topics. Bring your ideas of what you would like to learn and what you have to share.

Registration: Cost is $200 per person. Includes lunch both days, materials, coffee and snacks. Registration at brownpapertickets.com starting 1/15/20 under NorCal Gathering of The Learning Community. For registration by mail, contact Chrissy at crotermundnorthstar@icloud.com. A participant guide with hotel information will be emailed to registrants.
